Short description of content:
The TEÁOR nomenclature is serving basically statistical classification purposes – classifying economic activities of economic organisations. We enlist units performing economic activities, the economic organisations, into the four-digit classes of TEÁOR, based on their main activity. The internationally coordinated system of economic classification provides the basis for comparing economic statistic data within the European Union.

Applications:
- statistical purpose: economic statistics in the fields of e.g. registers, national accounts, short term indices, yearly performance statistics, labour market indices, energy-, transport-, environmental statistics.
- administrative use: business registries, e.g. in business-, taxpayers-, registry court records; furthermore, several legislations use the TEÁOR classification for identifying activities.

Relation to international classifications:
It is identical with NACE Rev. 2.1, the activity classification of the European Union, it is consistent on levels 1-2 with the activity classification of the UN, the ISIC Rev. 5.
